

Parenting through separation

A FREE INFORMATION PROGRAMME FOR PARENTS

"It gives you such a good understanding of how your children think, and how you can make separation easier on them."

Parent who has attended the programme.

There's a programme available in your area now with lots of practical tips and resources to help you understand your children's needs and support them through the tough times of separation.

For more information call 0800 211 211 or visit parenting-through-separation.net.nz or contact the Family Court Co-ordinator at your local Family Court.
