Form 6: Notice of Objection to the Enforcement of an Order

What is this form for?

Use this form to object to an application made to a District Court for the issue of any process to enforce an order requiring you to pay money as an alternative to compliance with a work order and that you believe that you have already complied with.

Completing and this form submitting

1. Fill in all sections below.
2. Print in CAPITAL LETTERS.
3. A notice of objection may only be given on the ground that you believe that the order of the Disputes Tribunal requiring you to pay money has complied with.
4. This form must be submitted within in 21 days after you are given notice of the application to a District Court for the issue of any process to enforce the order requiring you to pay money.
5. Check, before submitting this form, that it is complete and that you have signed and dated it.
6. Submit this form by post or in person to the District Court where the Disputes Tribunal Claim was heard.
